525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock-cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government, and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 95 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by Words for Our Irish Citizens.

We have on several occasions republished from the Irish Republic, a paper published in Chicago in the interest of the Irish Americans, articles which significantly indicate that the citizens from the Emerald Isle are beginning to discover the cruel inconsistency of demanding freedom for their own native land and of voting with slavery in the land of their adoption. Below we give another from this paper on this subject. The Irish Republic is conducted with uncommon ability. It opposes modern Democracy because it is the apologist of human slavery, and it resists the restoration of the rebels to the power they forfeited by their treason and by their defeat in honorable war, because that restoration will be the restoration of the worst heresies of the old Calhoun school. The Irish Republic, speaking, we hope, for many thousands of Irishmen, looks to the Republican party to adjudicate the great questions concerning the rights of American citizens now pending against Great Britain and other foreign countries and the United States. But to the extract. We only wish the plain truths so clearly set forth, could be felt and followed by all our Irish voters.

In one of the exceedingly numerous addresses presented by the people of this country to Major General Phil. Sheridan during the past four months, he was congratulated on the happy conclusion of the great war in which he took such an active and glorious part. He replied sententiously and truly that so far as he was concerned "the war was not yet ended." He had been engaged in actual conflict with the enemies of American liberty and of the American Union, which is the very foundation stone on which it rests, up to that very hour.

The assertion is emphatically true, and in a far more extended sense than that in which it was employed by the hero of the Shenandoah. Although many months have passed over us—so many that they can even now be numbered into years—since Lee surrendered and the armies of the conquered Confederacy were disbanded, although the authority of the United States has been restored from Alexandria to New Orleans, and from Nashville to Wilmington, although the Stars and Stripes float once more over Fort Sumter, and Charleston itself appears to be as mild and gentle as a lamb, yet for all that the war still continues to determine the momentous question whether virtual slavery or real liberty is to rule America.

Everything is changed but one, and that is the grand issue for which the tremendous conflict was waged and lost and won. Jefferson Davis is no longer the leader of slavery loving rebels. Andrew Johnson performs that "duty" in his stead. The headquarters of the gigantic rebellion are no longer in the city of Richmond. They have been transferred to Washington. The questio vexata is no longer contested with physical weapons. Instead of the cannon and the rifle, the sword and the bayonet, we have now got Congressional reconstruction acts and Presidential messages and vetoes, stump speeches and mass meeting resolutions. The ballot has taken the place of the bullet. But the cause of the conflict is essentially the same, and that is, as we have said, whether liberty or slavery is to be the dominating principle in this American continent.

Since the Confederacy collapsed and President Lincoln was assassinated, the Chief Magistrate of the United States has been the leading rebel against the national authority. This is worse than an anomaly. It is a scandal and a crime. The incident is a terrible one. But the proof is alike positive and plentiful. Did he not, within a few short weeks after the last shot was fired and the last sword sheathed, hand over the authority of nearly half the States of the Union to men who had sacrificed hundreds of thousands of human lives in order to destroy the national Government? Did he not, in the very teeth of the proclamations and laws which gave freedom to the negro, hand him over to the tender mercies of those who were resolved either to re-enslave or destroy him? Did he not connive at the atrocious murders committed by his underlings in New Orleans to carry out this infamous purpose? When Congress passed a reconstruction law to raise the oppressed to freedom and to restrain the tyranny of the oppressor, did he not set himself resolutely to defeat its object? Did he not, for this purpose, recall and endeavor to disgrace the gallant Sheridan? Has he not since recalled, with one exception, all the other generals to whom the task of reconstruction was entrusted by the national will? And has he not set up his tools in their places, whose work will be to deprive the unfortunate colored race of all effectual military protection, and leave them to be so dragooned and cowed by their tyrants that they will not dare to exercise the rights of citizens? By this means reconstruction is to be defeated—the country is to be handed over to the old conservative league of Northern Democrats and Southern enslavers—the cause of equal rights to be crushed, and crime enthroned perpetually in the high places of the great American Republic. What more than this could the slave-holding confederacy have done, even had it triumphed on the field of war? And is not rebellion rampant in the very worst sense, when the Chief Executive of the American Union is not only straining his own legitimate power, but usurping that of the other branches of the Government, in order to accomplish a purpose so abominable?

A Strange Proceeding.

[From the N. Y. Sun, Feb. 22.]

The President yesterday nominated the Hon. Thomas Ewing, of Ohio, as Secretary of War instead of Edwin M. Stanton. Mr. Ewing was born in Ohio county, Va., December 28, 1789, and is accordingly now a little more than 78 years old. He is also rather feeble in health for his years, and may be considered to be physically incompetent to perform the labors of the office. That under the present circumstances he should be willing to accept such a nomination is almost inconceivable. Very possibly it will turn out like the recent nominations of Gen. Sherman and Gen. George H. Thomas, which were promptly repudiated by them. Besides, if Mr. Johnson really intended to appoint a permanent Secretary of War, why did he send the Adjutant General over to the War Department on Friday with a temporary commission in his pocket? In the light of Mr. Ewing's nomination yesterday, Mr. Johnson's conduct in producing all this disturbance, excitement, and peril which attend the appointment of the Adjutant General seems doubly unjustifiable and criminal. It is difficult to account for these inconsistent and unreasonable transactions on any ground except that the President has become insane.

Democratic Politicians in Trouble.

A correspondent at Umatilla sends us the following, under date of March 14th:

The article which appeared in the Portland Herald of the 4th inst., headed "[illegible]" in High Life, is calculated to send the impression abroad that the parties implicated were members of the best society of our little town. Now we have many families as good as Oregon can produce, and they consider that the article alluded to is a slur upon their reputation. The paramour spoken of, who sported nimbly in the lady's chamber, has stood high in the Democratic party, as his store was the source from which all rebel liquor has flowed, and the party is now without a leader, for he has absconded with his lady of easy virtue who has not been admitted or recognized in decent society.

The [illegible] of Monday has the following:

A man named Montgomery, who resides at Albany, and who is charged in the dying declaration of Martha Tupper with seducing and poisoning her with drugs, was arrested and brought to this city yesterday. The Grand Jury found a bill against him for the crime of manslaughter. His attorneys asked and were granted a change of venue to Linn county, and the prisoner was [illegible] for his appearance at the next term of the District Court in Albany.

This Montgomery is an active Democratic politician of Linn county.

The Boston Journal says of Mr. Welles's letter in the Grant-Johnson correspondence, that it is like the Dutchman's answer to a man's question as to his opinion on a certain matter: "I tinks vat you tink—vat you tink?"

Clatsop County Union Convention.

The Union voters of Clatsop county met in mass meeting at the court house in Astoria on Saturday, March 14th, 1868, at 2 o'clock P. M. An organization was effected by electing Col. R. R. Spedden President and J. G. Hustler Secretary. On motion a committee of three, consisting of C. T. Finlayson, I. Sawyer and W. W. Parker were appointed to draft and report a series of resolutions expressive of sense of the convention. The following were reported and on motion were unanimously adopted, to wit:

Resolved, By the Union voters of Clatsop county in mass convention assembled, that the chief object of the Union party since its organization in 1862 has been to conquer the enemies of the United States, to assert and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and the laws of the United States, and to establish the integrity of the nation on the basis of enduring peace and happiness of the people.

Resolved, That the most casual, as well as the most critical reading of the Constitution of the United States gives to Congress full authority to pass all the bills which President Johnson has seen fit to veto during the last three years, and now that those measures have been re-endorsed by more than a two-thirds vote of each succeeding Congress, with twenty seven States fully represented, all factious opposition ought to cease.

Resolved, That Andrew Johnson, by his late attempt to nullify an Act of Congress which had been passed by more than a two-thirds vote, and which had time and again been recognized by himself during the last year—in dismissing the Secretary of War and appointing another and ordering him to assume the duties of the office without the approval of the U. S. Senate while that body was in session, justly merits the odium brought upon himself by that act, and that he well deserved impeachment by the House of Representatives.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the recent action of Congress in the report of Hon. N. P. Banks upon the right of expatriation, and the protection due to adopted citizens when they may be traveling in the countries of their nativity.

Resolved, That the abominable secession heresy of "State rights," as expounded by the leaders in the secession Democratic party, is too absurd to be entertained by any unprejudiced man of sense or patriotism, and it is now apparent that many well meaning citizens of the late rebel States have been sadly deceived thereby during the last six or eight years.

Resolved, That the following clauses of Article VI of the Constitution of the United States give a full exposition of the true doctrine of State rights, to wit:

This Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land, and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the earliest possible restoration of the late rebel States to their normal condition in the Union, with full representation in Congress.

Resolved, That we demand the most rigid economy in the administration of the Government, both State and National, and that all our national debts and obligations must be punctually discharged in strict compliance with the terms upon which they were contracted, and for those purposes the customs and other revenue laws should be so arranged and modified from time to time so that the burthens of taxation shall fall as lightly as possible upon the various interests and employments of the people.

Resolved, That the brave and patriotic soldiers and marines who so nobly defended our country's life and honor during the late war, are entitled to our most sincere gratitude, and we pledge to them and the needy families of those who died in our country's service, our warmest sympathies and substantial aid.

Resolved, That we view with a just national pride the great progress made by our nation in the last six years in material prosperity, power and worldly renown, and that all praise is due to Congress for the many acts of legislation during that period which have so much helped to bring forth such results, not the least of which and one of the greatest importance to the whole Pacific coast is the construction of the great Pacific Railroad, now certain to be completed in two years from this time.

Resolved, That we have the firmest confidence in the loyalty, patriotism and eminent ability of Gen. U. S. Grant to lead the nation in peace as he has done in war to certain and honorable victory, and we pledge to him or to whomsoever shall become the nominee of the Union party for President our cordial support and suffrage.

Resolved, That the delegate to the State Convention be instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Hon. Cyrus Olney as our candidate for Representative to Congress, and the Hon. W. W. Upton, of Multnomah county, for Circuit Judge for the Fourth Judicial District, also M. F. Mulkey, Esq., for District Attorney for the same district.

On motion the proceedings of this Convention were directed to be published in the OREGONIAN and the Salem Record.

On motion the Convention then adjourned.

COL. R. R. SPEDDEN, Pres't.
J. G. HUSTLER, Sec'y.

So Soon!

During the late State elections, when the Democracy of the West advocated the forcible substitution of non-interest-bearing treasury notes for gold interest-bearing bonds, Republicans charged upon the authors of the scheme a deliberate purpose to repudiate the entire national debt. Democratic orators and editors denied the charges, with great indignation; but we have now the first number of a journal boldly entitled The Repudiator, published in St. Louis and confessedly devoted to a total annihilation of the value of United States bonds issued during the war. We select from the leading introductory article this announcement of the purposes of the journal:

Paper bonds issued upon the faith of such a faithless Government, by the party in power, which was the unblushing patron of all this shame, paid the expenses of all this riot. The people were told the bonds were needed to prosecute the war, to restore the Union, and to preserve the rights and dignities of the States. But the money realized from the bonds was squandered in the way we have designated. It is as clear a case of obtaining money or property under false pretences as ever was established in a court of justice. It is a crime indictable under the statute and punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary. It is a maxim of law founded in correct morals that fraud vitiates whatever it touches. Does the history of morals or of jurisprudence furnish a clearer case of fraud? It is as though a western man should go to New York, falsely representing himself to be a western merchant, and after obtaining a quantity of goods on credit should undertake to dispose of them surreptitiously. The defrauded creditor could, under the law, seize the goods if not yet disposed of to innocent parties, prosecute the impostor in the criminal court, and send him to the penitentiary for obtaining property under false pretences.

In this just and proper view of the subject, the question is one that rises into a much higher region than that of mere finance. It is a question of morals. Can a just people, consistent with moral duty, consent to the payment of bonds thus fraudulently obtained? Would not their payment be offering a premium to fraud and a reward to rascality? We think so, nay, it is so. It will be seen that it is not a debt but a fraud which we propose to repudiate. It is not a moral duty which we propose to leave undone, but a [illegible] which we propose to perform.

But we must pause. [illegible] The Rep[illegible] of the argument.

Brick Pomeroy's advertisement for a Confederate flag [illegible] The Petersburg Index snubs him in the following manner: "We doubt the propriety of sending the flag to a man who didn't go to it. We havn't much respect for this after the battle fervor."

Late Political Items.

[From the N. Y. Sun, Feb. 25.]

Senator Morton's health is improving [illegible], and he walks better than at any time since his return from Europe.

The Sentinel on the Border, now published at Louisville, hoists the name of Jefferson Davis for President. What will the La Crosse Democrat do now?

There are said to be a number of candidates for the Senatorial succession in Iowa, including the present incumbent, Mr. Grimes, and Representatives Wilson and Allison.

The Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana, [illegible] it necessary, in order to save his reputation, to deny that he ever sympathized with the objects of the Knights of the Golden Circle.

The Republicans of New Hampshire are circulating thousands of copies of the letter of Franklin Pierce to Jeff. Davis, written in 1860, in which he predicted that "the fighting would be within our own borders, in our own streets."

In view of the recent statement of the New York World that Gen. Grant is not a church-going man, it is worth while to recall the fact that he is not only a regular attendant at the Wesleyan Chapel, but gave $10,000 towards the Metropolitan Methodist Church now being erected at the capital.

A new apportionment of Congressional districts in Indiana takes effect at the next election, [illegible] ceding the apportionment which has stood since 1852. By the "new deal" the northern portion of the State gains a member, and the Republicans start in the race with majorities computed upon the vote of 1866—in all the districts but one.

Eastern Democrats are urging Gov. English, of Connecticut, as Presidential candidate, but [illegible] brethren of the West think that Democratic Presidents should be made of sterner stuff. If a New England man must be taken, they prefer Thomas H. Seymour, who was never tainted with the imputation of being a War Democrat, and whose political record, from the Copperhead point of view, is unexceptionable.

The Constitutionalist of Augusta, Ga., names Admiral Farragut as a possible Democratic candidate for the Presidency. The [illegible] would make a strong candidate, and a good President, but we believe he is a regular Radical.

The Lexington (Ky.) Observer in a [illegible] upon Vallandigham, who, it says, is [illegible] to a large part of the Kentucky D[illegible] ledes to his service to the Copperhead [illegible] ing the war, and asks: "During those days of danger how many Vallandighams did the Northern Democracy possess?" The party [illegible] interested may be permitted to reply to this [illegible] home thrust.

A correspondent of the Nashville Gazette is not satisfied with President Johnson as a defender of the Constitution, and thinks that "his [illegible] will not vindicate the violated Constitution of the United States. There is no difference in principle between the President and Congress. They differ only as to the degree of usurpation, and the objects for which it shall be used. In his [illegible] he has only exposed the lawlessness of Congress, but his own abilities, aided by his Cabinet and Jerry Black, cannot prove his own adhesion to the Constitution. Both by precept and example he has taught that the provisions of that instrument may be disregarded, whenever, in the view of a dominant party, a political [illegible] may require its violation."

CONFIDENCE.—"You say you have [illegible] in Cookem, the pallatiff, Mr. Smith?"

"Yes, sir."

"State to the court, if please, what [illegible] this feeling of confidence."

"Why you see, sir, there's allus [illegible] eatin' house men, 'an I used to kinder think—"

"Never mind what you thought, tell us what you know."

"Well, sir, one day I goes down to Cookem's shop, and ses to the waiter, ses I, give us a weal pie."

"Well, sir, proceed."

"Well, just then Mr. Cookem comes up, and ses he, how du Smith, what are you going to have?"

"Weal pie, ses I."

"Good, ses he, I'll take one too; he sot down and eats one of his own weal pies right afore me."

"Did that cause your confidence in him?"

"Yes, indeed, sir; when an eatin' house man sits down afore his customers an' deliberately eats one of his own weal pies, no man refuses to feel confidence—it shows him to be an honest man."

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 20, 1868.

Painful and Fruitless Search for the "Ancient Landmarks."

We did our best yesterday to suggest a platform for the "Democratic" Convention which should be in accord with the "time-honored principles." We did this because we foresaw there would be difficulty in getting things fixed up harmoniously, and we were anxious to lend the Convention all the assistance in our power. But in spite of our efforts, it has resulted as we feared. The party has lost sight of the "ancient landmarks." It is adrift in an open boat without sail, rudder or compass. Sad to tell, it has become extremely [illegible], if not entirely impossible to ascertain just what the "time-honored principles" are. Democratic antiquarians have been exploring all the [illegible] of the past, with no success. One says one thing and another another. It is a very Babel of political tongues, variant, dissonant and [illegible]. The Committee on Resolutions have had a most arduous duty imposed upon them. When first appointed, at the morning session, the Committee was ordered to report at three o'clock. The [illegible] came, and with it came two sets of resolutions, with a report that the views of the members of the Committee were irreconcilable. After [illegible] deliberation, it had been found impossible [illegible] upon the "eternal, unchangeable [illegible]" and the Committee were remanded [illegible], with instructions to report again at [illegible] session. The hour arrived, and the [illegible] of resolutions were again tossed upon [illegible] of the Secretary. No one had yet been able to attain even the most indistinct view of the [illegible] ancient landmarks." Clamor arose. [illegible] was made to refer both sets [illegible] to a new Committee, with a view to [illegible] what the principles of the "Democratic party" are. Ben. Haydon, Brobdignagian Ben, [illegible] of the Committee already appointed, de[illegible] that if the matter were disposed of in this [illegible] would "take it as a direct insult." He [illegible] that if any one were competent [illegible] the whereabouts of the "time-honored [illegible]" he could do it as well as another. [illegible]. A member called for the reading [illegible] sets of resolutions, supposing that the [illegible] of the Convention would be able [illegible] and combine a few stray fragments of [illegible] principles" and out of the rubbish [illegible] of platform together. So both sets [illegible] were read. But the Convention [illegible] to the task. It could not [illegible] were the "time-honored principles." So the Committee was discharged and another appointed, with instructions [illegible] a platform to-day at ten o'clock. [illegible] Brobdignagian Ben" took it as an [illegible] his hat down over his eyes and [illegible] out to "stand."

[illegible] with the tribulations of the [illegible]. Especially do we sympathize [illegible] appointed Committee on Resolutions [illegible] so onerous a task thrust upon [illegible] what a predicament they are in, [illegible] to mention that a part of the [illegible], in despair of discovering the "an[illegible]," reported in favor of endorsing [illegible] platform of 1860, and [illegible] Union platform of 1864. The resolutions were nowhere. We are more firmly [illegible] than ever that the only correct and [illegible] for the Convention to take is to [illegible] stated yesterday. When the [illegible] throws overboard the resolutions, [illegible] it is adrift without compass or [illegible] we have given we feel [illegible] but our duty, and the fault will not [illegible] if the party has lost sight of the "an[illegible]" forever.

Highly Suitable Authority.

[illegible] of Wisconsin has become a [illegible], and the press of that [illegible] him with approbation. The Herald [illegible] written by him to a [illegible] in New York, in which he [illegible] calls the "destructive policy of [illegible] with all the malevolence of a renegade. [illegible] to publish a letter written by [illegible] some time ago, before he began [illegible] of Johnson. In the the full of [illegible] to the editors of the Janesville [illegible]:

"[illegible] entitled to his rights as a man just [illegible] white man, he has as much right to [illegible] wife and children, and the bread he [illegible] as I have to mine. That is [illegible] but not the only one which concerns his [illegible]. There is another, and that is, that [illegible] to a home where he can enjoy his [illegible]; his natural home is in the hot climates [illegible] of the earth.

[illegible] have had peace, I would have found [illegible] all who voluntarily desired to migrate [illegible] territory. But as we have had [illegible] will insist upon war, under [illegible] of the President, I would make [illegible] within the United States, beginning [illegible] South Carolina, where this hell-born [illegible] has been hatching its infernal brood [illegible] than thirty years.

[illegible] you refer to, made early in [illegible], I said the same thing, "that if the [illegible], we shall see upon some future map [illegible] States, where South Carolina now [illegible] territory of the United States." I [illegible] more after the fourth of January.

[illegible], Judge Howe, knows that at the [illegible] we ever had with the President [illegible] time, early in the extra session of [illegible] I told the President that if the war continued [illegible] years, that would be the result.

The [illegible] State Journal, in commenting on [illegible]: "It will be observed that [illegible] then had no doubt of the power of the [illegible] Government to make territories of [illegible] States. It was his desire then [illegible] in carrying on the war, not [illegible] of them but to give South [illegible] to the [illegible]. Moreover, as early as [illegible] of 1861, he predicted, he says, that [illegible] if the war continued two years [illegible] not only two years, longer, but four years longer. By Mr. Doolittle's own [illegible], his views from the summer of 1861 up to the fall of 1863, were as radical as the most [illegible] sentiments advanced by Senator Sumner or Mr. [illegible] at that time. He stands fairly committed, over his own signature, to the doctrine that the Southern States had forfeited their rights as States, and were liable to be treated as territories." The Journal adds that "it should be remembered in justice to Doolittle's motives, that when the above letter was written his term in the Senate had but a few months of expiring, and a Republican Legislature was to meet meanwhile and determine whether he or some other man [illegible] be elected for the succeeding term." This [illegible] apostate and renegade is a very suitable [illegible] authority.

Regulating Suffrage.

The proposition which has been made in Congress "to guarantee a republican form of government to the several States of the Union," as reported in the telegraphic dispatches to-day, is the [illegible] which has been brought forward by a few [illegible] at different times during several years past. It has no more chance of success now than it has had on former occasions. It is simply a [illegible] that Congress shall regulate the suffrage in all the States,—a proposition which has never been able to command a dozen votes in that body. Some two years ago, just prior to the last general election in this State, the telegraph reported that an attempt similar to that indicated in the dispatches to-day had been made in Congress; and the Democrats of Oregon paraded it as proof of the intention of Congress to enact such a measure. The following is a Washington telegram of May 29, 1866:

Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to enforce the article in the Constitution abolishing slavery, by securing the elective franchise to all colored citizens. It provides that every citizen of whatever race or color, shall have the right to vote at all elections; State laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

This proposition is therefore a very old story. The present bill, if it obtains any further attention, will share the fate of its predecessors. But there are a few men in Congress, like Sumner and Stevens, who, no doubt, will continue regularly to bring forward this proposition during the remainder of their natural lives,—if their terms of office should last so long. We append a portion of an editorial article on this subject which appeared in this paper about a year ago:

Senator Sumner, it is understood, will take an early opportunity to again bring before Congress a proposition to regulate the suffrage in all the States of the Union. He has lately published several articles at various times in Eastern journals on the subject, in which he takes ground that the proposed measure is entirely in harmony with the Constitution, being fully authorized by the latest amendment to that instrument. Of course Senator Sumner will be able to produce a prodigious array of learned arguments to support his doctrine; but there are few persons who can be convinced that a clause of the Constitution which does not contain the most distant allusion to suffrage grants the power to Congress which the Senator claims. Until the Constitution is amended still further, the power of regulating the suffrage must remain where it has resided heretofore. The Senate is known to be almost unanimously opposed to Sumner's plan, and it is doubtful whether another Senator can be found who will vote with him on the question he raises. There is not the smallest probability of the adoption of such a measure. But in one particular relating to suffrage, the National Constitution could be amended with advantage. The right to prescribe the qualifications of electors of members of Congress and of the Electoral College should belong to Congress; the right to regulate all other elections belongs naturally to the States and should not be disturbed. The first is wholly a national matter; the last concerns the States only, and is of no interest to the General Government. Here should be the dividing line between National and State authority on the subject. The sovereignty of each should extend to everything necessary to carry into execution their own rightful powers. An amendment of this sort would have a chance of being considered by the people; but a proposition like Sumner's will not receive serious attention anywhere.

- 5th. Nomination of candidate for Congress.
- 6th. Three candidates for Presidential Electors.
- 7th. Nomination of six delegates to the National Democratic Convention.
- 8th. Nomination of State Central Committee, to be composed of one from each county.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of permanent officers, which resulted as follows: President, J. K. Kelly; Secretary, V. Trevett; Assistant Secretary, J. H. Gilfry; Sergeant-at-Arms, J. H. Lappeus.

The President elect, on taking the chair, thanked the Convention for the honor conferred, and then proceeded to appoint the following Committee on Resolutions.

Col. J. E. Ross, R. B. Cochrane, Ben Hayden, Beriah Brown and J. H. Slater.

On motion, Beriah Brown, Jr., was chosen as page to the Convention.

Adjourned till 3 o'clock P. M.

Three o'clock P. M.—The President called the Convention to order, and the Committee on Resolutions was called for. The Committee reported progress and asked further time.

Mr. Brown said there seemed to be an irreconcilable difference among the committee—that as yet they had not been able to agree upon a platform, and suggested that the committee be instructed to present a majority and minority report.

After considerable discussion, the committee were allowed until 7 o'clock P. M. to report, and the convention adjourned until that hour.

Seven o'clock, P. M.—The Convention was called to order by the President, who announced that the report of the Committee on Resolutions was then in order.

Mr. Hayden then presented the report of the majority, and Mr. Beriah Brown presented the minority report of the Committee.

Mr. Humason moved that the Committee on Resolutions be discharged, and the two reports be referred, without reading, to a new committee of five, consisting of one from each judicial district.

Considerable discussion ensued upon the resolution.

Mr. Hayden said that the majority had yielded some points to the minority of the Committee, that he had desired to insert a clause in favor of resisting by force the "Abolition rule by nigger votes."

Mr. Brown wanted the minority report adopted because it charged upon the Republican party their perfidy and treachery.

Mr. Waymire said that he was opposed to lengthy platforms; that he only wanted two sections; 1st, in favor of the Constitution; 2d, against the Republican party and its misdemeanors in office.

Mr. Cochrane said that the field was so broad and the charges were so numerous against the Republicans, who had so completely destroyed the Constitution, and overthrown the Government, that it was difficult to determine which of the many strong points to choose.

The ayes and nays were called for on Mr. Humason's motion, which resulted, ayes 71, nays 68.

The President then appointed O. Humason, J. C. Hawthorne, J. F. Miller, John Whiteaker, and Charles Hughes, as the new committee on resolutions. The committee were instructed to report to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, A. M., and the Convention adjourned to that hour.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 19.

Congressional.

In the Senate, several petitions and communications were presented and referred.

Morrill, from the committee of conference on the Consular Appropriation bill, recommends that the Senate recede from certain amendments and concur in the House amendments providing for paying into the Treasury all moneys over one thousand dollars received by Consuls or financial agents. This report was concurred in and the Senate took up the bill exempting certain manufactures from internal taxes. A number of amendments were offered and rejected. Grimes offered an amendment reducing the tariff on imports to per cent.; lost, 12 against 32. The bill as passed in committee, was reported to the Senate. Sherman gave notice that he would press it to a vote to-morrow. Adjourned.

In the House, Broomall moved to reconsider the vote referring to the Judiciary Committee, (which carried), the bill to guarantee to the several States of the Union a Republican form of government. The preamble recites that the form of government in several of the States is not Republican because by their Constitution and laws in such States, political rights are made to depend on parentage or race; and whereas it is the duty of the United States to guarantee to every State a Republican form of government, therefore

Be it enacted, That all provisions and enactments in State Constitutions or laws which make distinctions in political or civil rights among the citizens on account of parentage, race or color, or deny such rights to any citizens are hereby declared void and of no effect.

SEC. 2. If any person shall prevent any qualified citizen of the United States from exercising the right of suffrage at an election in such State under pretence that such citizen is disqualified by the Constitution or laws of such State on account of parentage, race or color, he shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and subject to a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding five years or both at the discretion of the courts.

A long political discussion ensued. Stevens of Pennsylvania addressed the House in favor of the bill. After speaking a few minutes, he had the remainder of his speech read by the Clerk. Stevens closed by offering a substitute, providing that every male citizen of lawful age, born or naturalized in the United States, or who has declared his intention to become naturalized, shall be entitled to vote upon all national questions in any State, and no distinction shall be made between citizens, except for treason, felony, or other infamous crimes. After further discussion, Broomall withdrew his motion, and the bill and pending amendments remain with the Judiciary Committee.

Farnsworth, from the Committee on Reconstruction, reported a bill to admit Alabama to representation in Congress. He said he would ask to have it considered and passed to-morrow. It provides that Alabama be admitted when the Legislature ratify the fourteenth article of amendments to the Constitution, and directs the General commanding the District to notify the Legislature chosen at the election held in February last to meet within thirty days of the passage of this Act.

Washburne, from the committee of conference on the consular appropriation bill, reported, which report was agreed to. The House soon after adjourned.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The President has nominated A. Huggan, as collector of internal revenue in Idaho, and J. R. Hubble as U. S. attorney in Montana.

The military district of Alaska is made a seperate department. Gen. Jeff C. Davis is assigned to the command in accordance with his brevet rank.

New Jersey Politics.

TRENTON, March 18.—The Republican State Convention to-day chose delegates to the National Convention, and favored Grant for President.

Steamboat Disasters.

CINCINNATI, March 18.—The steamer Magnolia of the regular Cincinnati and Maysville line, which left here to-day with about a hundred cabin passengers, exploded her boilers about twelve miles above this city. The boat afterwards took fire. About forty persons were killed, several being burned to death.

The Vermont Republican Convention.

RUTLAND, Vt., March 17.—The Republican Convention yesterday selected delegates to the National Convention. The resolutions favor Grant for President, indorsing impeachment and declaring for equal political rights.

Michigan Politics.

CHICAGO, March 19.—The Michigan Republican Convention was held yesterday at Detroit. Delegates were selected for the National Convention. The resolutions favor impartial suffrage and condemn the granting of public lands to corporations; approve the impeachment of the President, and declare for Grant for President, and Colfax for Vice President. Nothing said on the finance question.

Miscellaneous.

A number of former army officers living in Tennessee, both Radical and Conservative, have denounced the statements lately telegraphed that a conspiracy exists to overthrow the State government by armed force. Governor Brownlow telegraphed Grant that such a conspiracy does exist, but says he will be able to defeat it without the aid of the United States forces. The officers who signed the card mentioned above very positively deny any existing danger.

The Tribune's special says that Hancock telegraphed that he will arrive in Washington on Friday.

A Times' special says McCulloch has written a letter to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee strongly opposing the bill before Congress abolishing the tax on manufactures. He says, if the bill passes, he estimates the revenue of the next fiscal year will fall short from one hundred millions to one hundred and twenty millions of the amount required.

West Indies.

HAVANA, March 18.—Jamaica dates to the 1st inst. state that the Government has appropriated six thousand pounds yearly for the education of negroes.

Quarantine is enforced against vessels from St. Thomas, Porto Rico and Santa Cruz. Vessels are in demand.

Mr. Franklin, agent of the International Telegraph, had applied for permission to land a cable to connect Cuba with Jamaica and Aspinwall; also, to put a line across Jamaica and Hayti.

Advices are that President Salnave and his army were surprised 50 leagues from Cape Haytian and defeated. He was pursued by armed peasantry in overwhelming force and sustained great loss.

The French Admiral has demanded the payments of Haytian arrears to France for three years past. In case of an unsatisfactory reply he will seize the Customhouse and collect payment himself.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The Herald's special says: Information is received from the American naval station at Callao stating that a hostile expedition is preparing to descend on Cuba. The authorities appear to know of the affair.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, March 18.—The whole plan for church, land and educational reforms in Ireland goes over to next parliament.

DUBLIN, March 18.—W. Johnson, an Orange secretary who was arrested for taking the lead in an illegal procession, has been made a candidate for Parliament from the city of Belfast.

MADRID, March 18.—Peace envoys were expected from Peru and Chile.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—At 9 o'clock this morning, as some laborers were at work pulling down a brick building at the corner of Battery & California streets, a partition wall fell and buried three men. John Lomey and Robert Donnelly were killed and Thos. Heffron probably fatally injured.

Yesterday afternoon a Montgomery street broker sent his son, aged 11 years, to draw $300 on a check. The boy drew the money, divided with a chum of about his own age, and both absconded to Oakland. They were afterwards arrested and the money, less $12, was recovered.

The purchasers of the ship Viscata, which was wrecked, have libelled the cargo of wheat remaining on board at the time of the sale, claiming to have purchased the same with the ship, notwithstanding the wheat was subsequently sold to another party against the protest of the owners of the vessel.

Rear Admiral Craven and Captain Russell, of Mare Island, have tendered the owners material for raising the vessel, and an attempt will soon be made to get the ship out of her bed of sand.

The coroner's jury, in the Mrs. Ball inquest found evidence strongly implicating Wm. Robinson in the cause of the decease.

A mate was garroted and robbed of his watch and money on Kearney street, Wednesday night.

The U. S. Navy yard schooner went ashore on an island in San Pablo Bay. The Chrysopolis hauled her off. No damage.

The rumor that the attempted suicide of Harry Jackson was attributed to jealousy is uncontradicted upon excellent authority, and was an injustice to Mrs. Jackson.

The delegates to the Union State Convention from Douglas county are instructed to present the name of Hon. J. F. Gazley for one of our three Presidential Electors. As an Elector in 1864 Mr. Gazley did able and effective service for the Union ticket.

A sturdy Democrat in Washington county says that "the National Democratic Committee ought to silence Nasby, because he is doing the party more harm than good." Can not the Democratic Convention of Oregon take some suitable action in the case?

The California Union State Convention will meet at Sacramento on the 31st of this month, to elect delegates to the National Convention.

In this city, at the residence of Rev. Mr. Stoy, March 19th, by Rev. Mr. Stoy, Mr. W. W. Newell and Miss Emily S. Monck, all of Portland.

Our friend Newell has long been a dweller in the "gall of bitterness" which always attends a pressman waiting, waiting till the "wee sma' hours" for the forms to be ready; but, thanks to Hymen, the "forms" are now "locked up" and Newell has "gone to press."

PREMIUM SYSTEM.

CASH, WHEN REQUIRED. NOTES ARE, HOWEVER, TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums, thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually CANCEL THE NOTES.

How different this is from a Cash Company who exact all Cash, under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy-holder, when he is unable to pay his renewal premium.

REMEMBER

That the "OLD MANHATTAN" never assumes or promises Extravagant Dividends to induce insurers to come and insure with them. Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well-managed and first-class Companies, and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future. It never vilifies the character of other Companies to accumulate business. THE MANHATTAN'S oldest insurers are its best advocates. The business of the Company is conducted with ECONOMY!

This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future.

From the following table, taken from the New York Insurance Reports of 1867, it will be seen that our percentage of expenses to receipts are very much less than any Companies enumerated below:

Expenses on each $100 of Receipts:

Manhattan Life	13.16
Guardian "	14.30
North America	15.44
Mutual Life	17.09
Continental	20.64
Germania	22.11

A Great Lung Medicine

There is no medicine which has been prepared for the cure of affections of the lungs which has been very largely used and tested which we have heard recommended to the public ... with truth and sincerity ... as we do that it is ... and never has been surpassed for excellence and thorough efficiency.

That medicine is ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM. It is prepared by a chemical process and apparatus of more than ordinary costly nature and it is beyond all question a never-failing ... highly ... for coughs and affections of the lungs even when the latter are of a very serious and threatening character. One excellent physician ... state publicly over his own signature that he has a perfect conviction that deep seated pulmonary consumption has been cured by the use of Allen's Lung Balsam, and there are an abundance of the most respectable testimonials that it has in innumerable instances effectually cured very severe coughs of long standing accompanied with ... chills, night sweats and diarrhoea—the system of the sufferer being in some cases very much prostrated.

We do not hesitate to say from our knowledge of the virtue of this Balsam and from the entire confidence we have in the character of its proprietors, and the statement of certain citizens who have repeatedly used the medicine, that it is really one of the best things ever yet discovered for the cure of the particular maladies for which it is designed. We will only add, let every one get a bottle of Allen's Lung Balsam, and give it a fair trial. Having done this, they will need no testimonials to convince them of its extraordinary merits.—Providence Advertiser

Lamb was once discussing the poor law with a retired cheesemonger who was not proud of his business in which he made his money. In the course of the conversation the latter said "You must bear in mind, sir, that I have got rid of that sort of stuff which you poets call the 'milk of human kindness.'" Lamb looked at him steadily and gave acquiescence in these pithy words "Yes, I am aware of that—you turned it all into cheese some years ago."

The Pain Killer Abroad.

The following correspondence will show something of the estimation in which Perry Davis' Pain Killer is held on the shores of the Mediterranean. It is not surprising that a medicine that receives such testimonials as this from abroad, should find well sustained and increasing appreciation at home

U. S CONSULATE, Tunis, Dec 27, 1865.

To the Proprietors of Davis' Pain Killer, Providence, R I—Gentlemen,—The enclosed has just been received from my friend Tulin late Consul General of Norway and Sweden and of Prussia in this place. No comment is needed. Truly yours, AMOS PERRY

GENOA December 16, 1865

Dear Sir —Accept thanks for this third supply of Davis' "Pain Killer." This medicine has often relieved me of serious indisposition, and I would not on any account consent to be without it both for myself and my family

I have recommended it to my late colleagues and friends in Tunis and Genoa, and at my request one of the largest druggists in this city has sent an order to New York to meet the demand in this place

Yours truly G A TULIN,
Ex-Consul Gen'l of Sweden Norway & Prussia in Tunis
Hon Amos Perry Consul General, Tunis fe25daw1m

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia Liver Complaint Sick and Nervous Headache General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits Constipation Colic, Intermittent Fevers Sea Sickness

Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or

PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery exciltant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day

Grant.

In an article entitled "Soldiers in Politics," the Springfield (Mass.) Republican aptly says of General Grant:

Without undertaking to add anything to the philosophy of the world on the subject either of civilian soldiers or military politicians, let three things be said in respect to Ulysses S. Grant.

First. He has displayed beyond cavil a penetration into character and a practical wisdom in the choice of subordinates which no man since the great Napoleon has possessed. From the first, when he was himself hardly known, he put his eye upon those as among the best men of the army. Yet at that time the hero of Nashville had not as much popular reputation as scores of men whose names are almost forgotten now. When Sherman was only known to the country as Crazy Sherman, Grant had taken him to his heart, made him the confidant of all his plans and selected him to do the wonderful work he afterwards preformed. When Sheridan was a Colonel of volunteer cavalry, the same incisive glance had marked the hero of the Shenandoah. To the immense disgust of older officers, gallant Phil was brought forward, measured for a coat with eighteen buttons and put in command of a division of infantry, then of the Potomac horse, and sent galloping off to rout Stewart's cavalry, and kill J. E. B. himself at Yellow Tavern. When the question came, whom to send to the Valley, to change the miserable luck that for three years had [illegible] attended us, Hancock was the senior officer, far the most pretentious, and at that [illegible] had the greater popular reputation. But Grant knew better. Sheridan, before the war, had done more against the Indians with a squadron of horse than Hancock did last year with ten or fifteen thousand men. Which went to the Shenandoah? Trust Grant for that; he picks out the right man as lightning strikes the right tree, without stopping to ask the way. So it was with the great and good McPherson. So was it with the brilliant array of younger officers who came up in the last [illegible] of the war, when Grant had command of the whole army. Now this is a great fact—We might almost say, the great fact in all administration, civil or military. To organize and officer the state well is no less a step towards success than to organize and officer an army well. It is not so much what the President does in his own person, as the manner in which he distributes the posts of power and assigns the duties of others, that determines the efficiency of government.

Second. Grant has invariably displayed a [illegible] of soul that never yet went with little [illegible] of mind. Walpole hated so to have a [illegible] that he drove every brilliant man into [illegible], and secured his own downfall because he would not share his glory. Of what [illegible], was Grant ever meanly jealous? [illegible] said as much as he in praise of Sherman, [illegible] McPherson, Thomas, Meade? [illegible] how he lay with his gallant army, [illegible] before the fortifications of Petersburg, [illegible] fall of 1864, when popular impatience [illegible] groaned him to attack, when the [illegible] and the people began to demand his dismissal, and to stigmatize him "the butcher" [illegible] then when Sheridan won his great [illegible] in the valley, and every cap went up [illegible] Phil, Grant capped the whole by [illegible] that he had always regarded him [illegible] the first of living Generals—how, [illegible] Hood invaded Tennessee, the [illegible] General gave Thomas all the men [illegible] and all the means, and contributed in [illegible] way to the splendid success at [illegible], yet scrupulously refrained from doing [illegible] to take the glory from Thomas, [illegible] have done by simply going on [illegible]—how, then, when Sherman had

"[illegible] the [illegible] to the sea,"

[illegible] gave him a brother's welcome, "ten[illegible] covered his sad blunder at diplomacy, [illegible] pointed to the nation as the great strategist of the war. Now, it is possible that such [illegible] that could conduct a Presidential administration [illegible] like Andrew Johnson, James [illegible], or Franklin Pierce; but it is not [illegible]. No it is not probable.

[illegible] how to say no! He knows [illegible] to say nothing. Why, the best [illegible] of President Lincoln does not pretend [illegible] of his appointments, and many [illegible] and civil orders, on any other [illegible] that the [illegible] of public sentiment [illegible] feeling, of political influence [illegible] is so powerful, so [illegible] human nature cannot resist it. [illegible] that any one of our last six Presidents [illegible] to do a tenth part of the abominations [illegible] did in the way of patronage? [illegible] and it has become one of [illegible] our politics because they [illegible] selves. Even Johnson, [illegible] on his firmness, has been [illegible] like a boy in a mob. Grant [illegible] can help himself. He can [illegible] politicians the door. He can [illegible] of [illegible] holders or office-[illegible]. He can do, as he has done—hold out [illegible] solicitations and foil intrigue with his [illegible] soldierly earnestness, and his silent, [illegible] resolution.

[illegible] Opposition to Pendleton's Nomination

[From the New York Sun.]

[illegible] are constantly occurring, which [illegible] that Mr. Pendleton will not obtain the [illegible] nomination for the Presidency without a struggle. Names loom up in the Northern [illegible] states which are too deeply rooted in the affections of the party to be waived aside by any aspirant beyond the mountains.

We have already spoken of Mr. Hoffman. His [illegible] triumphs in this city, and his gallant battle for the gubernatorial chair in 1866, have given him a reputation throughout the country. Those who think that the Mayoralty of New York is not an appropriate stepping-stone to a Presidential nomination, forget that in 1812, De Witt Clinton, who [illegible] then [illegible] almost solely upon his administration of the office of Mayor of New York, was the candidate opposed to the [illegible] of Mr. Madison, and carried eight of the [illegible] States.

Governor Seymour has apparently withdrawn from the list of candidates. We say [illegible]. Those who imagine him wholly [illegible] forget that he is a disciple of the Albany Regency, which always diverted [illegible] the real man until having convinced [illegible] the fire of the factions upon his rivals [illegible] could at the right moment bring him forward as a compromise candidate, the bringer of concord to the jarring elements of the party.

Through the admirable tactics of Van Buren, Wright, Marcy, and their coadjutors, the Regency controlled every Democratic nomination from that of Crawford, in 1824, to that of Polk, twenty years later and through its power had waned, and the prestige of some of its chiefs had become tarnished, it had vigor enough to defeat the election of Cass in 1848, and secure the nomination of Pierce in 1852 against strong competitors.

The pupils of the Regency are still numerous, and widely scattered through the Northern States. Their favorite is Seymour. A gentleman of fine presence and elevated morals; possessing scholarly attainments, and versed in affairs; wielding a smooth pen, a melodious elocution; keen in his political instincts, and facile in turning the sharp corners of a difficulty, Governor Seymour would probably be the strongest candidate that could be presented to the Democracy in the States east of Ohio. He would run well also in the South. But, being regarded as the representative of the hard money kings of the bond holding Democracy, he does not pass so currently in the West as Pendleton. Besides, his strength in the Middle and Eastern States is impaired by the indirect rivalry of numerous candidates for the Vice Presidency—as for example, Adams, of Massachusetts, English, of Connecticut; Parker, of New Jersey and possibly Church, and even Hoffman, of New York.

In speaking thus of Governor Seymour, we are not unmindful of General McClellan. He is lying in wait to embrace the same chances that inspire the hopes of Seymour—a compromise candidate. A defeated nominee who gallantly bears the banner of his party through a heavy fight, has a firm hold upon the sympathies of its masses. Jackson was nominated in 1828 because he had been overthrown in 1824. Harrison's defeat in 1836 ensured his selection in 1840. And, though Clay was always beaten, he was, partly for that very reason, the idol of his party, every enthusiastic Whig from the Aroostook to the Missouri, being ever ready to toss off a bumper with a "Here's to thee Harry Clay!"

A paper recently read before the Statistical Society of London computes that the income of all classes of population of England, Ireland and Scotland is £821,379,000 per annum. The sum appears so enormous that we may well look into its distribution. It is estimated that the upper and middle classes, who have regular incomes from some source or other varying in amount from £100 to as many thousands, receive £4[illegible],000,000 of the whole and the manual labor class £321,000,000. The number of people in the former class actually in receipt of incomes and not dependent for their living upon others is 2,7[illegible],000, and in the latter 10,962,000.

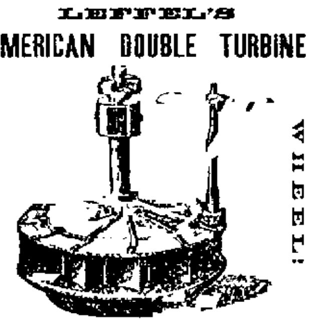
LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.
☞ The following is from the Springfield Republic:

Trial of Water Wheels.

Messrs. Jonathan Child and John A. McCreight, who are about establishing mills and factories at Harper's Ferry, Va., wished to procure water wheels and desiring to make a choice of Springfield Wheels, procured a trial between the Leffel Double Turbine and the Welch and Burns Wheel. The following report of the Committee shows the result of the trial.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 11, 1867.

This is to certify, that on the 9th and 10th days of October, 1867, I, in company with Mr. Staley, Civil Engineer, of Mechanicsburg, carefully measured the amount of water used in the test between the 10 inch Leffel Turbine and the 10 inch Welch & Burns Water wheels, made by Bechtle, Blakeney & Baker, made at Weimer's mill, near West Milton, Miami Co., O. The contract requiring the tests to be made with ½ gates and ⅔ gates, with the same amount of water for each wheel. The amount of grinding was superintended by Mr. Charles Morgan, who will report the results.

The amount of water used in the tests, as measured by myself and Mr. Staley, is as follows:

	C. ft. per min.
At ½ gate the Leffel Wheel used	88 2.4
Welch & Burns used	88 224
At ⅔ gate the Leffel Wheel used	117 528
Welch & Burns used	117 648

The grinding was continued for one hour each test.
WILLIAM BROWN,
Civil Engineer.
S. S. STALEY.

Having been chosen by both parties to determine the amount of grain ground by each of the above mentioned wheels, the result was as follows:

The Leffel Wheel at ½ gate ground	256	lbs
The Welch & Burns at ½ gate ground	56½	lbs
The Leffel Wheel at ⅔ gate ground	411½	lbs
The Welch & Burns at ⅔ gate ground	192	lbs

CHARLES MORGAN.

An Enterprising firm of this city have imported a few of the above CHEAP, PLAYED OUT WHEELS. "They GUARANTEE THEM EQUAL TO THE LEFFEL, OR NO PAY."

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these terrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical
INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of [illegible] victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so unin[illegible] ject as the decay of manly vigor through the [illegible] vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible] tive; but the desire to point out to those who [illegible] guish and decay, the true cause of their [illegible] great an incentive to be forced into si[illegible] tended the terrible disease of Seminal W[illegible] one but the practical specialist who devotes his time [illegible] treatment can tell; but its pr[illegible] nce can be [illegible] the most inexperi[illegible] ced by noting the foll[illegible] toms. Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power; [illegible] cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot [illegible] of consumption; short breath; flushings of the [illegible] sion to society; confusion of the [illegible] loss of [illegible] nightly emi[illegible] colorless; slight [illegible] least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the [illegible] regular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the symptoms enu[illegible] ated above, pause to [illegible] present is the golden moment in which you may [illegible] health and happiness. You may feel [illegible] now, but you have ever practised the vice of self [illegible] SLIGHTLY INDULGED, you have the seeds of [illegible] system, and their [illegible] will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your [illegible] ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being [illegible] disease that declares itself at once. Therein [illegible] est danger; for while the patient is being [illegible] affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Di[illegible] tions, he sinks into a general debility that soon [illegible] to the list of the victims of the terrible [illegible] Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing [illegible], the victim of the fascinating vice. Mark the [illegible] destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull [illegible]

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory sy[illegible] first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually [illegible] great disinclination to pursue his regular b[illegible] mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights [illegible] days of depr[illegible]

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a [illegible] lief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] deply fails, and he finds himself in a depth [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible] Or if the marriage should result in offspring, [illegible] ny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is [illegible] ble to both sexes, whether married or single, and [illegible] times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of [illegible] rible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to [illegible] to them, but by instant application [illegible] only hope of health and happiness. The [illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs [illegible] cures, when [illegible] time, always guarant[illegible], and full and [illegible] stored.

The afflicted are assured of every sec[illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH [illegible]

NEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the [illegible] the Institute, the number of cases of V[illegible] been treated show a record unequ[illegible] ed by any in the world, and the success that has [illegible] the course of treatment.

Without Mercury or other De[illegible]

Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be [illegible] called for but actually dangerous, for it is [illegible] established medical principle that those [illegible] by entering the blood, ruin the constitution [illegible] life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent [illegible] and finds no difficulty in curing those of long [illegible] without submitting the patient to such [illegible] draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or [illegible] neglect his business, whether in-doors or [illegible] diet need not be changed. Cures always [illegible] no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO [illegible]

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry be, "Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] relief and whose respectable standing in society will commend him to the confidence of the [illegible] Doctor understanding how imperatively [illegible] requirements are, feels called upon to [illegible] calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Di[illegible] ty years, and is fully qualified to administer [illegible] both medically and surgically, not in a superficial [illegible] but in as thorough a manner as years of study and [illegible] —both in hospitals and private families—can [illegible] them from the hands of the unqualified, [illegible] designing. Therefore, families can rely upon [illegible] a father. All in affliction can find in him one [illegible] and sympathize with and befriend them in [illegible] in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be [illegible] consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures [illegible] teed in all weakness and trouble incidental to [illegible] Private apartments are provided, when desired, [illegible] he had all the advantages of unremitted att[illegible] Doctor and the most skillful and faithful.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or [illegible] residing in the Interior, are often deterred from [illegible] the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, [illegible] the expense of a visit to the city. To such he [illegible] that a plain statement of the symptoms and [illegible] bearing upon the complaint, will enable him to [illegible] for them so that they can be cured at home. Need [illegible] have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.
